

President is to attack the Standard Oil Company. These reports have gone so far as to say that Roosevelt did not like the way the Standard Oil Company deposed themselves during the last Presidential campaign, and that every industry in which they are interested is to be investigated with a view to taking legal proceedings against the company and properties in which its managers are interested.

WINNEBAGO INDIANS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Edward Rosewater, proprietor of the Omaha Bee, who today presented to the President a letter from the Nebraska Catholic priest, who recently made serious charges concerning the treatment of the Winnebago Indians in Nebraska, was a guest of the President at luncheon.

Mr. Rosewater suggested that one way to eradicate the evils from which the Indians on the Winnebago reservation were suffering was to remove them to a reservation in Nebraska, where they would be under the supervision of the Nebraska State Police, and where they would be subject to the same laws as the Indians of that State.

NAVY IN NEED OF OFFICERS.
Chief of Navigation Recommends Large Increase in Naval Staff. Navy Officers Needed to Patrol the Ocean—Efficiency of Battleships Ample Demonstrated.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—How badly off the navy is for officers and how seriously this condition may affect the navy and the nation is told in the annual report of Rear-Admiral George A. Converse, chief of the Bureau of Navigation, approved by Secretary Dutton today. Experience, especially in gun fire, he says, has shown that it is necessary to increase the number of officers assigned to a ship, so that the estimate made in 1902 of the number of officers needed for ships in commission is inadequate. It provided for only about one hundred and fifty officers as ships of the same class as the British, French and German navies. Admiral Converse recommends that the number of lieutenants be increased from 250 to 400, and that the number of lieutenant commanders be increased from 200 to 300.

NEW NAVAL RECORD.
Pennsylvania Makes Highest Speed With Smallest Relative Expenditure of Fuel.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
BOSTON, Nov. 22.—The armored cruiser Pennsylvania, in her official trip of the New England coast, today made the highest speed with the smallest relative expenditure of fuel of any armored vessel so far built for the United States navy. Her contract called for 22 knots and her average speed was 23.5 knots.

Rockefeller is Thankful for Victory in Battle With Dyspepsia.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John D. Rockefeller is thankful for his victory in the battle with indigestion he is at last victor, and that for the first time in years he will be able to partake of an old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner of turkey, mince pie and all the other things that made the day a festive occasion in his boyhood days down on the farm.

NEED OF CRUIZERS.
Attention is called to the indispensable of cruisers, the report says: "We require a cruiser squadron in the North Atlantic, South Atlantic and the Caribbean and also on the European station, all of which being ready on approach of hostilities to combine in one fleet wherever needed. In the Pacific our force should consist of a large squadron of cruisers and on the Asiatic station the battleships should be supplemented with a full squadron of cruisers."

VALUE OF BATTLESHIPS.
Regarding the paramount efficiency of the battleship and the part played by them in the Far Eastern war, Admiral Converse says: "Although a hundred and more torpedo boats and destroyers have been totally engaged for five months against battleships, which have been exposed to attack times without number, we have yet to learn authoritatively of a torpedo from a torpedo vessel causing the loss of a single battleship. Those which have been sunk were destroyed by broken shells, torpedo vessels not contributing to the result, except by the confusion and sense of greater danger due to their presence. It is evident that in the final sum of losses the achievements of torpedo vessels will count less than was at first supposed. It cannot be claimed, therefore, that there has been so far anything to discredit the battleship as a type, nor in any such outcome to be expected from this war, whatever may be the casualties among battleships. To wage successful warfare with a naval force requires now, as it has required in all ages, a type of vessel which shall combine in the most effective manner the qualities of offense, mobility, defense, endurance, self-maintenance. Such vessels are battleships, and they constitute the main strength and reliance of a navy."

FLY COP'S MISTAKE.
Star Tenderloin Sleuth Arrested an Innocent Citizen on Charge of Diamond Nipping.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After staying all night in a cell, spending $5 in tips to get messages to friends, and nearly freezing for lack of a fire, Charles D. Roehr, assistant secretary of the Traders' Union Life Insurance Company, was arraigned this morning on the charge of stealing a diamond pin from a passenger on a trolley car. Detective Melver, known as the star detective of the Tenderloin, failed to produce one bit of evidence against Roehr and the prisoner was discharged after the magistrate had denounced his arrest as the greatest outrage ever perpetrated by the police.

Roehr had just placed his sister on an uptown elevated train and ran to catch a downtown surface car. No sooner had he taken his seat than Melver sat down by him, called him a thief, said his name was in the rogue's gallery, clapped on handcuffs and hauled him off to prison. So positive was the police captain that his star detective did no wrong, that he advised a friend who came to bail Roehr out to be wary about going bail. Then Roehr was isolated.

Even the robbery story was discredited in court and it was clearly shown that Roehr was the victim of an official detective.

SCHAFFER VINDICATED.
Assistant Postmaster of Oakland Not a Drunkard, but His Wife is a Bignist, Says Omaha Court.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
OMAHA (Nebr.), Nov. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Paul Schaffer, assistant postmaster of Oakland, who was charged with being a drunkard, and whose wife was charged with being a bignist, was today vindicated by the Omaha court. The decision is based on the fact that Mrs. Schaffer was a bona fide resident of Nebraska at the time and that evidence was produced, affidavits from prominent citizens of California proving Schaffer, instead of being a drunkard, an upright and sober man.

Schaffer filed a motion for judgment, which was granted by the court. The court found that Schaffer was a bona fide resident of Nebraska at the time and that evidence was produced, affidavits from prominent citizens of California proving Schaffer, instead of being a drunkard, an upright and sober man.

MAY CARRY "BOOZE" ANYWAY.
BOSTON, Nov. 22.—The full bench of the Massachusetts Supreme Court decided today that it is not a crime for the seller of intoxicating liquors intended for delivery into a no-license city or town to transport them by one not carrying on a regular or lawful express business. Furthermore, it was held that the carrier, though not a regular expressman, is equally free to transport liquors without the act being considered a crime.

TOWANDA, Pa., Nov. 22.—The grand jury today found true bill against Mrs. Maggie Johnson, wife of Higley Johnson, and her four children, charged with the murder of their mother, Mrs. Johnson, on the night of September 18th and afterward setting fire to the house and burning the bodies of the children. The details of the crime are not made public by the officials.

NEW YORK AGAIN WIDE-OPEN TOWN.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Despite the sacred pledges through which Tammany succeeded in the election of McClellan as Mayor over Seth Low, who gave the city the closest administration it ever knew, "red lights" are again burning brightly and the infamous "rackets" are again in the saddle. The town is as "wide open" as never before, even in the palmiest days of the notorious Van Wyck administration.

The Globe publishes a big expose tonight, founded upon facts gathered by an impartial investigation. Up to within three weeks ago even the Bowery maintained outward decorum. Five days before the election, leaders high up in Tammany made a general levy on every saloon, gambling house, assignation house, dive-keeper and "racketeer" for a big Democratic election fund. Promises were given that the police would keep speed for the four hours trial was 22.43 knots per hour, while her coal consumption was 2.2 pounds per horsepower per hour.

Her builders, William Cramp & Son of Philadelphia, made no attempt throughout the trial to push their greatest vessel, but on the other hand their energies to exceed the government requirement, with the most economical expenditure of fuel possible. Her trial was therefore the first of the numerous tests over the Cape Ann course in which speed was not the sought-for object.

The economy of the fuel consumption, according to Edwin S. Cramp, was due to the rigid discipline in the stokehold and the excellence of the boilers. The firemen distributed the coal regularly and evenly, with the result that the boilers steamed freely. At no time was there an attempt made to "hog" the boiler, although Builder Cramp stated at the end of the trip that he was confident that the Pennsylvania could have made an average of 23 knots.

The engines developed a horsepower of over 28,000, while the propellers averaged 128 revolutions per minute.

FUSHIMI ROBBED.
Japanese Prince Loses Valuable Jewels from His Room at Hotel in St. Louis.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Prince Fushimi, cousin of the Mikado of Japan, who is visiting the World's Fair, was the victim of robbers this afternoon. While the Prince and his suite were out on the exposition grounds burglars entered his apartments at the Buckingham Club and stole jewels valued at $50,000. Among the property taken were three handsome diamond rings belonging to the Prince, and a beautifully embossed emblem belonging to A. Sato, grand master of the household of the Prince. The emblem was a decoration from a European monarch and was highly valued. The Prince, who is a Buddhist, was horrified and was by him only upon state occasions. Detectives are working on the case, but up to a late hour tonight no clue had been found to the thief or whereabouts of the missing jewels. The theft is one of the most mysterious which has occurred at any of the hotels or clubs this season. Absolutely no trace has been found of the jewels and the Prince is at loss to account for their theft.

LAWSON DENIES CHARGES.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
BOSTON, Nov. 22.—Conspiracy and fraud are denied by Thomas W. Lawson, in an amendment to a demurrer which he filed today in the Massachusetts Supreme Court in a suit brought against Lawson, Weldendick & Co. by the Bay State Gas Company of Delaware. The action against the firm was begun in April last and its purpose was to restrain the defendants from disposing of certain shares of the Bay State Company, as well as bonds of Edward A. Belmont, a Delaware resident. After denying the allegations of the bill of complaint, Lawson declares that "Edward A. Belmont and his associates should be joined in the suit as a defendant."

OVERLAND'S PERIL.
Train Ruled on Track Before Eggs
and Wreck Barely Averted.

Tramps Arrested.
Because they were put off a train on which they were trying to steal a train, George Williams and William, charged with a severe gale and attempted to wreck the southbound train last evening at Maples, six miles north of Santa Barbara.
Williams saw large rocks on the track and succeeded in backing his train almost to a standstill, preventing what would probably have been a disaster. The pilot of his engine, who jumped into the water, was killed as the train was stopped.
On board the blind baggage, they were found. On board, on board, at Santa Barbara they were placed under arrest and are now being held in the city. Williams said he put only one man on the train, and that he took it before the arrival of the train.
There is a serious case, especially in the case of the alleged repeated attempts to wreck Southern Pacific trains between Santa Barbara and San Francisco.
It is probable that a stiff sentence will be meted out to the offenders if guilty.

PICTURES OF FAMINE. TO HELP BOOST.

Graphic Description Promised Tomorrow of Starvation Conditions in San Diego County.

A big sympathetic fund, and one that is expected to bring practical results, as well as mere solicitude, is expected for tomorrow night in Simpson Auditorium, where the Sequoia League will gather its forces to present most graphically the terrible conditions of the indians of the five Campo reservations in San Diego county.

They are descendants of the "Gentiles," converted first of all the Indians of California, by Junipero Serra, in 1769. Then they were many and owned all the fertile valleys.

Now driven back by the "shotgun" of the enterprising settler, as it is said, they are hidden and lost on untraveled trails, in a mountainous country, as productive as the middle of Broadway.

They are huddled around little bowlfuls of earth, of two or three arable acres at best, and are all the living for a band of forty or fifty indians.

The little fields are so badly fenced that when the crop is in the ground the hogs of the settlers get in and root it up. This drives the young Indians away from home to find work, and they have to go from seventy-five to one hundred miles on foot to get it. The old people stay at home and luxuri-ate in a diet of acorns and wild fruits.

C. F. Lummis and Wayland H. Smith of the Sequoia League state that on their trip they saw five reservations, they saw in only one had anything but acorns. Thereafter acorns became a word of warning to the Indians, and that she was cooking with the acorns.
Otherwise the diet of acorns was unmitigated.

The Indians grind the acorns in little stone mortars with stone pestles as their ancestors did before the time of Coronado. They make the flour into a sort of jelly, that appeals to the aboriginal taste in connection with other things. But acorns alone do not contain sufficient nourishment for health.
They are very straggling and many of the women have died from the effects.
The children are marked by their absence. The conditions of life are so severe that unless the human plant is well "set" it cannot stand them at all. The children die off. It is fortunate for them that they do, poor little folks.

The brush and grass huts in which these Indians live for the most part, are pleasant enough in pleasant weather. It is complete "out of doors," and much like camping under a tree.
The huts are about the size and shape of an Equilibrium "log," and very ingeniously made. But they are not protection from the rain, the heat, the bitter nights and the deep snows of winter.

"The picture of those wretched, wrinkled examples of unhappy old age, bereft of half their faculties, and ragged blankets, huddled around a pitiful little fire in a two-foot snowstorm, or a long rain—something to haunt one until the day of one's death."

Mr. Lummis took some fifty photographs on the trip just completed. He will show lantern slides of these pictures in his lecture, which will be given tomorrow night. The admission is free.

GREAT LUCK OF AUTOMOBILIST.

ONLY ONE MAN ON ROAD AND HE HAD GASOLINE.

Millionaire John H. Gay of San Diego Has Strange Adventure in Los Angeles Suburb—It Almost Amounted to a Miracle—When a Plumber Was an Angel.

John H. Gay of San Diego—who is known among Southern California au-tomobilists as the one mobist that never has an accident—has left his "tourist" home to be overhauled and replenished while he visited St. Louis. Returning for a brief stay he started out with two friends on Tuesday for a day's run wherever good roads disclosed themselves.

About midway between Los Angeles and the west shore, and centering the plain between mountain range and beach hills, his machine balked and would not be coaxed into going on.
Cigars were cast aside, and an investigation of the presumably faulty gasoline tank disclosed shameful neglect.
It was empty.

Mr. Gay appeared contemplative, while his guests figured out that Colegrove—the nearest point—must be three miles distant. He promptly stopped the car, and then he said: "Not a word to me about a gas station. I
